A Note From Our Lead Pastor

Here at Parkland, we value missions. We talk about and highlight the work of our international and North American missionaries, we pray for them by name, we teach about the need for missions, and we ourselves participate in missions efforts. But one of the ways we support missions is with our seasonal missions offerings. At Christmas, we give to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for our international missionaries. At Easter, it's the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for North American missionaries. Last year, we decided to consolidate some of the other, smaller missions offering into one to better promote and pool our resources. Starting in July, we will be participating together for the first time in the Parkland Missions Offering. This offering will be split among 4 missions efforts, our internal Missions Fund for Parkland mission trips, the Kentucky Baptist Convention for state missions, Louisville Regional Baptist Association for Louisville missions, and Gospel Lights for their work both in Kentucky and beyond. I would encourage you to give generously as we see the fruit of each and every one of these missions efforts in so many ways. As Jesus taught us, we are to be His witnesses where we live, within our region, our nation, and around the world. This missions offering helps us do just that. Let's continue to value missions at every level knowing that we can accomplish far more together than we can apart.

Pastor Chris

Summer Book Group Options Wednesdays, July 3–July 31 (6 PM)

Theology

Knowing God's Truth by Jon Nielsen (Cost: $18)
Theology is not just for pastors and theologians. It is for anyone who wants to know God and his word better. This introduction to systematic theology offers an explanation of twelve basic categories in a personal, accessible, and worshipful manner.

Hospitality

The Gospel Comes with a House Key by Rosaria Butterfield (Cost: $13)

With the story of her conversion as a background, Rosaria Butterfield invites us into her home to show us how God can use “radical, ordinary hospitality” to bring the gospel to our lost neighbors and friends. Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own, but as God’s tools for the furtherance of his kingdom.

Parenting

Triggers by Amber Lia and Wendy Speake
(Cost: $15)

Do you believe your struggle with anger stems from the wrong behavior you see displayed in your children? The knee-jerk reactions and blow-ups you’re facing are often a result of a bigger set of “triggers.” Triggers examines common parenting issues that cause us to explode inappropriately at our children.

Classic Fiction

The Hobbit by J. R. R. Tolkien (Cost: $10)

Bilbo Baggins is a hobbit who enjoys a comfortable, unambitious life, rarely traveling any farther than his pantry or cellar. But his contentment is disturbed when a group of travelers arrive on his doorstep one day to whisk him away on an adventure, setting in motion a series of events

Family Reading

The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe by C. S. Lewis
(Cost: $5)

This Christian classic features breathtaking adventure, captivating characters, and thought-provoking Scriptural allusions—making it a great option for parents to read aloud to their children, creating bonds and memories that will endure a lifetime.

Food

Broken Bread by Tilly Dillehay (Cost: $4)

Most questions about food aren’t really about nutrition but about how we understand God. Broken Bread: How to Stop Using Food and Fear to Fill Spiritual Hunger challenges us to abandon the concept of good and bad foods and instead offers a way to celebrate food without obsession and make healthy choices without bondage to rules.

Youth Groups

The Wingfeather Saga: On the Edge of the Sea of Darkness by Andrew Peterson (Cost: $6)

Janner, his brother, Tink, and their sister, Leeli, are gifted children as all children are; but they will need all their gifts and all that they love to survive the evil pursuit of the venomous Fangs of Dang, who have crossed the dark sea to rule the land with malice. (This Christian Fiction offering is for the Youth reading groups.)
